The Development Encounters: Local Resistance and State Intervention Man Purotaganon, 1999

Development with a Body Andrea Cornwall, Sonia Correa, Susie Jolly, 2008-09-15 We used to talk about development with a human face We should be talking about development with a body Arit Oku Egbas African Regional Sexuality Resource Centre Nigeria Sex and sexuality have always had a place at the heart of the development agenda from concerns regarding population and environment to practices in education and efforts for protecting reproductive health and rights Yet this agenda has largely focused on negative dimensions of sexuality disease risk violation rather than positive aspects including rights to sexual fulfillment wellbeing and pleasure The shift towards a rights based approach to development has brought the human rights dimensions of sexuality into clearer view and consequently the need to address discriminatory laws and violations of the human rights of those whose sexual identity and practices diverge from dominant sexual orders norms This book offers compelling insights into contemporary challenges and transformative possibilities of the struggle for sexual rights It combines the conceptual with the political and offering inspiring examples of practical interventions and campaigns that emphasize the positive dimensions of sexuality It brings together reflections and experiences of researchers activists and practitioners from Brazil India Nigeria Peru Serbia South Africa Turkey the UK and Zambia From political discourse on sex and masculinity to sex work and trafficking from HIV and sexuality to struggles for legal reform and citizenship the authors explore the gains of creating stronger linkages between sexuality human rights and development

Translation Theory and Development Studies Kobus Marais, 2014-07-16 This book aims to provide a philosophical underpinning to translation and relate translation to development The second aim flows from the first section's argument that societies emerge out of amongst others complex translational interactions amongst individuals It will do so by conceptualising translation from a complexity and emergence point of view and relating this view on emergent semiotics to some of the most recent social research It will further fulfill its aims by providing empirical data from the South African context concerning the relationship between translation and development The book intends to be interdisciplinary in nature and to foster interdisciplinary research and dialogue by relating the newest trends in translation theory i.e. agency theory in the sociology of translation to development theory within sociology Data in the volume will be drawn from fields that have received very little if any attention in translation studies i.e. local economic development the knowledge economy and the informal economy
