A Good Night Out Class And Form:

New Theatre Quarterly 49: Volume 13, Part 1 Clive Barker, Simon Trussler, 1997-08-21 Provides an international forum where theatrical scholarship and practice can meet to question dramatic assumptions Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz, 2019-12-12 London's West End is a global success story staging phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue In Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural social and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical light comedy sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre

Beyond Brecht John Fuegi, 1983 Peter Brook states unequivocally Brecht is the key figure of our time and all theatre work today at some point starts or returns to his statements and achievement In Beyond Brecht theatre practitioners film makers and scholars assess the work of those who in their own creative work have absorbed Brecht and sought to move beyond him to create theatre film and song for the 1980s From David Bowie's London Baal production to film in Switzerland to engaged theatre in Calcutta to the genius of Fo in Italy the volume moves us beyond a Brecht fit for the museum to a Brecht full of life for our turbulent time
