Dying Flames Robert Barnard,2006-05-16 From Robert Barnard the internationally acclaimed Diamond Dagger winning crime writer Some memories are better left buried in the past Well known author Graham Broadbent has managed to repress one particularly dangerous memory for many years but a trip home to a school reunion brings back the shocking reality of a desperate youthful passion It all begins with a knock on Graham s hotel door His visitor is nineteen year old Christa who read in the newspaper that he would be in town She introduces herself as his long lost daughter His daughter It s true that many years ago Graham had a fling with Christa s mother an exquisitely alluring school actress named Peggy Somers The dates don t work though Graham maintains he was out of the country when Christa was conceived He couldn t be her father He s almost sorry that he can t claim Christa a lively young woman who intrigues him in a strange way And what about Christa s mother the formidable Peggy who made such an impression when she portrayed Saint Joan in the school play all those years ago Why would she have lied to Christa about her paternity Why name Graham as the girl s father Separated from his wife at loose ends in his writing Graham takes the fateful step of searching out Peggy It s a big mistake Peggy s life which started with such promise has been a major disappointment Now it s about to become a disaster Peggy lies She fabricates She fantasizes She is the kind of person who will destroy Graham if he lets her As Graham finds himself drawn increasingly into the turmoil surrounding this woman and her children he must deal with deception and ultimately with murder The sins of the past return to haunt the living and the lives of those who survive will never be the same Writing with the piercing insight and wit for which he is renowned Robert Barnard creates a poignant masterpiece of mystery as thoughtful as it is entertaining
